The Shepard Stores

R. H. WHITE CO.

Open April Month-End Sale—Two Days—Thursday and Friday

The Once-a-Month Occasion when we close out Hundreds of Lots at Greatly Reduced Prices*

Wonderful bargains may be picked up in this sale. Remnants, Odd Lots, Broken Sizes, Discontinued Styles are all Marked Down to be closed out—this month—in just two days.

Some departments, having practically cleared their stocks in recent sales, had little or no merchandise to reduce for this event. In order not to be left out of the Sale they have gone into the market and secured big bargains from manufacturers who desired to close out lots at price concessions.

Lots advertised were all in stock when this advertisement was sent to the newspapers. Many lots are so small, however, that we cannot guarantee they will be on hand very long after the store opens at 9 A. M. As this is a Clearance Sale all transactions are final—No Refunds, Credits or Exchanges.

Stocks Weak in New York; Trading Is Active

COPPER ISSUES HEAVY HERE

Boston Market Has Strong Start, But Is Affected by New York

By W. H. ROSS, Financial Editor.

Stocks in New York were weak in the morning, but trading was active. The market was affected by the news from London, which was also weak. The copper market was particularly heavy here in Boston.
